

BASEBALL AND ATHLETIC SPORTS

BICYCLE SEASON
CLOSES TONIGHTOn Account of Rain the Twenty-Four Hour Motor Paced Race is Called Off.

TONIGHT'S PROGRAM.

Motorcycle race between Whittier and Samuelson, best two in three at two miles, Samuelson to have one lap handicap.

Match race, French style
"Whiskers" vs. Cretts.

One mile handicap, professional.

Two mile lap, professional.

Five mile open, amateur.

Rain checks given out last night are good for this evening.

In vain did Manager Harry Heagren of the saucer track try to dry the boards last night as the 24-hour motor paced race could be started, but the rain had done its work and it was impossible to run the big race. The event was therefore called off and the announcement made that, with the close of this evening's program, the season of 1909 would end.

SPRINTS AND SPILLS.

Sprint races were run last evening on track was slippery and it was impossible for the riders to hold the track. While there were many tum-bles no one was injured.

In the mile handicap, professional, her Lawson tried hard to win and succeeded in catching the bunch but could not go around them. Cretts carried off first money. Saxon Williams made an attempt to break his record in the two-thirds of a mile but the lapse was called wrong.

There was an exciting finish in the five-mile lap, amateur, between Mc-Cormack and Wright. On the final lap the "Burglar" passed "The Lawson" and fought it out with Wright, winning by a narrow margin.

The finish of the two-mile open, professional, saw Iver Lawson finish with one of his old-time bursts of speed, winning handsily. The summary:

One-mile handicap, professional—Cretts (50), Palmer (75), Bardgett (70), Charles (60). Time, 1:45.

Five-mile open lap, amateur—Mc-Cormack, Wright, Taylor, Diefenbacher, Brodebeck. Time, 10:45-1:5.

Female open lap, professional—Lawson, Pye, Schnell, Wells. Time, 2:15.

LAWSON AND WRIGHT.

Iver Lawson and Phil Wright finish the season leaders in their respective class Lawson is the professional champion and Wright is boss of the riders.

MADDOCK WILL REMAIN
WITH "U" UNTIL JUNE.

Coach Joe Maddock of the University of Utah has made the football squad and all the students happy by the announcement that he has consented to remain here until June of next year.
Wednesday he will line up his gridiron bunkies and start them training for the season, which is almost here. Maddock says it is too early to make predictions but he feels confident of rounding up a team that will more than hold its own against any of the eleven teams to play Utah.

The season begins next month, the schedule being as follows:

Oct. 2—U. A. C. at Logan.

Oct. 9—Montana School of Mines at Salt Lake.

Oct. 23—Golden School of Mines at Salt Lake.

Oct. 29—Fort Douglas at Salt Lake.

Nov. Arrangements pending to bring University of Southern California to Salt Lake.

Nov. 15—Montana Agricultural college at Salt Lake.

Nov. 25—U. A. C. at Salt Lake.

FAST GAME OF CRICKET IS LOOKED FOR TODAY.

At Liberty park this afternoon there is a game of cricket between a team of Englishmen and a team made up of local crick players. The team to be played is the All-Nationality. Both teams are said to be in splendid form, each side being confident of winning. Some of the crick players on the Eureka team will be in the line up. The All-Nationality team will have the following on hand:

E. Hoare, Stanley Hoare, Andrew Rodley, Ernest Beckett (captain), Jas.
Adams, Alec Adams, George Adams (wicket-keeper), Harry Evans, (wicket-keeper), David N. Hughes (American), H. Allen Childs (Canadian).

IMPORTANT BASEBALL
MEETING THIS WEEK.

Washington, Sept. 6.—The board of directors of the Washington American league baseball team early this week will hold one of the most important meetings of the season here to consider many questions vitally affecting the local club's future. Chief among the subjects to be decided is whether Joe Cantillon is to be retained as manager of the team next season. Other things in connection with the club's affairs are to be straightened out by President Noyes and his associates.

NAT CARTMELL, WHO IS SHOWING HIS HEELS TO ENGLISH CRACKS.

The recent exploits of Nat Cartmell, the former crack sprinter of the University of Pennsylvania, who has been in England since last summer, has caused considerable gossip among the followers of athletics in this country.
When he went abroad last year with the Olympic team Cartmell was picked to win several short distance events, but he failed. Since then he has improved wonderfully and is now showing his heels to the English cracks.

"YOUNG GRIFFO" IN JAIL.

Chicago, Sept. 6.—Alfred Griffith, known as "Young Griff," a well known pugilist, is in jail at the Harrison street station, and is a physical wreck. Several days ago relatives of the former prize fighter wrote from Sydney, Australia, from which place Young Griff came, and asked that he be arrested. They had learned that he had been drinking hard and was in need of medical attendance and wrote to investigate.

PRESIDENT PLAYS GOLF.

New York, Sept. 6.—In a golf match of 18 holes on the Myopia links between President Taft and Joseph A.
Aleschuter, the president holed out a brassie shot at a distance of 170 yards without apparently any difficulty.
